Giving of service – The Work period.

To keep the retreat costs down, we ask that everyone who comes to our retreats contributes approximately one hour of their time each day towards the running of the retreat. This may be anything from washing up, veggie chopping, cleaning or something else connected with running the retreat. We thank you in advance.

DANA ~ Dana is a Pali word. Pali was the language used in the area of India at the time The Buddha lived. Dana means the practice of generosity, giving or offering. Dana is a completely different way of relating to what is offered. Rather than a commercial transaction, Dana expresses the love and appreciation for what has been received. The daily rate you pay for the retreat covers only basic bills, food, organisational costs and airfares. No teacher receives any kind of salary. The Dana boxes that are put out at the end of each retreat support The Teachers and the tradition itself. Dana is not tips, it is not a token gesture, it is the vital resource that allows these retreats and this tradition which has continued since the time of the Buddha to continue. Be as generous as you can.

There will be a Dana (donation) box put out at near the end of the retreat for you to offer your support for the teaching.

Please note that there is no bank or ATM at the retreat venue so it's appreciated if you come prepared if you intend to offer dana by cash.

Dana can also be paid via direct deposit or PayID using Anton's phone number 0412 018962.
